

Creative & Educational Ways to Stay Busy at Home

Watch a TED Talk:

Pick an interesting idea and have a family discussion afterward.

Learn a new Skill: Consider things like knitting, sewing, coding, or woodwork.

Watch Animals at the Aquarium:

Tune in to live video of animals at the aquarium.

Dance Party: Crazy loud music, weird outfits and half an hour of dancing to get the wiggles out

Take a Virtual Tour of a Zoo or Museum:

Explore amazing museums without having to leave the house.

Read a New Book: We're guessing you haven't read every book at your house.

Family Photoshoot: Use a phone or camera to take lasting photos of the family around the house or yard.

Try a New Recipe: You can even input the ingredients you have to see what you can make.

Write a Letter to a Friend or Family Member:
The old way of staying connected.

Exercise: Either inside or at a safe distance from others outside.

Design Your Own Schedule:

Print this schedule and have each kid plan out their own day.

Make Fun Videos: Instagram, TikTok, YouTube or just for your own home.

Build something: Legos or Lincoln Logs can be a great way to get creative.

Gather Old Clothes for Donating: Take time as a family to think about what you can give away.

Play a Boardgame or Work on a Crossword:
Dust off that monopoly set or exercise your mind

Create Personal Moodboards:

Form ideas and photos encompassing moods or concepts you like.
